

Contract Major Senior Inquiry Project Approval Form

Per the Contract Major guidelines, students need approval from their faculty committee and a member of the Senior Inquiry Development Committee(SIDC) for their contract major senior inquiry project. The approval of the primary faculty advisor authorizes the student to register for the senior inquiry project course (CTRK-400). In consultation with the student, the primary faculty advisor will determine whether this course is graded or pass/no credit and the amount of credit awarded (0-9 credits possible).
